BACH EXTRÍSIMO SEMI DULCE

History

Masia Bach was founded at the beginning of last century by the brothers and textile manufacturers, Pere and Ramón Bach. They wanted to link the best cotton making tradition with winemaking, and gave the name of their prime cotton, "Extrísimo", to the premium vineyards that produce Masia Bach wines.

Winegrowing region

D.O. Catalunya

Varietals

Xarel-lo
Macabeu

Tasting notes

Aspect: Brilliance and clarity. A yellow colour with golden hues.

Nose: Intense and lingering. A complex fruity and floral bouquet with hints of chamomile, acacia and honey. Rounded off with fine notes of wood and toffee.

Mouthfeel: Good entry on the palate, with volume and structure. A good sweet/tart balance. Faint woody hints. A robust mouthfeel with a long finish.

Winemaker's Advice

This wine will reach its premium consumption time within two years and will keep well for 5 years.

Food matching

A perfect pairing with desserts, foie and blue cheeses. It also pairs well with aperitifs, seafood and fish casseroles.
